the railway operators say it is impossible to maintain freight or passenger schedules unless the cars are restored to them. General Luis M. Hernandez has been sent on a tour of inspection of all the lines with orders to compel the military chiefs to return the cars.

Teachers Not Paid.

The school teachers in Mexico City have not been paid since June 15 and recently a petition was sent to the senate asking for the restoration of the department of public instruction, which was destroyed by Carranza.

Difficulties of reorganization and administration apparently are not the least serious of those facing the new government. Reports received at the state department today from its representatives in that country told of several new revolutionary disturbances in various parts of the country. These seemed to be distinct from the movement led by Francisco Villa, and while not considered serious in themselves, department officials are giving them careful study.

Reports from the border today that Villa had signed an armistice had not been confirmed in advices received by the department.

Officials here, state that the new regime in Mexico has a great task to perform before the country is restored to anything like normal conditions. They fully appreciate the difficulties that confront the new administration, and say they are anxious to give what aid they can consistent with the protection of the rights of Americans in Mexico.

NEW REVOLUTION IS REPORTED.

Eagle Pass, Texas, July 7.—Reports that twelve brigades had been sent to the border to fight the new revolution today to rumors that a new revolution had broken out in Mexico. Rodolfo Gonzalez is said to head the new movement.

A Mexican government paymaster's train had been robbed yesterday of $50,000 Mexican gold by bandits controlling Monclova.

Troops are reported hurrying there from Torreon. No trains were running beyond the point.

ARMISTICE SIGNED BY GENERAL VILLA.

Mexico City, July 6.—Elias J. Torres, of El Paso, has left Mexico City after a conference with Provisional President de la Huerta relative to an armistice agreement between the government and Francisco Villa, the rebel chieftain, who is operating in western Chihuahua. It is understood that he is on his way to Villa's headquarters with the government's decision, and it is possible counter proposals have been made to the rebel leader.

The armistice to which Villa agreed would extend until July 15, if accepted. In addition, Villa has promised not to attack trains, garisons or villages until the date the armistice would elapse. Conditions for permanently abandoning warfare against the government have been laid down by Villa, it is understood.

HUERTA RECOGNIZED BY VILLA.

El Paso, Texas, July 7.—An armistice has been signed by Francisco Villa, and he has agreed to surrender under certain conditions, according to dispatches from Torreon, published today by The El Paso Times. Villa has agreed to cease attacks on towns, cities, and trains, according to the dispatches. The armistice agreement was secured by Elias J. Torres.

According to The Times' correspondent at Torreon, "Villa agrees to recognize the Provisional President and agrees to surrender when his terms and conditions are laid down in writing by La Huerta and General Elias Torres, Alvaro Obregon and Benjamin Huidobro. Villa ceases all operations until July 15."

Cyclorama Building Bids Will Be Opened

By Park Board Aug. 4

Bids for the erection of a new cyclorama building at Grant park will be advertised for by the board of park commissioners and those submitted will be opened at a meeting of the board on August 4. Specifications prepared by Architects J. F. Downing and B. A. Houser, whose design for the structure was accepted, call for the erection of the building at a cost of $75,000, which does not include the profits of the contractor, the architect's fees and the moving of the war picture to the new home. It is expected that items will run the expense to approximately $90,000. The board has available the sum of $100,000 to expend on a new building.

Under the proposed plans the building will be of reinforced concrete construction with stucco walls, and the front will be either Indiana limestone or Georgia granite. At the sides of the entrance will be placed two bronze tablets, one of which will be erected as a memorial to G. V. Gress, who bought and donated the magnificent painting of the Battle of Atlanta to the city and to which he also donated the zoo at the park. The other will bear the names of the mayor, the members of the park board and the architects and builders.

REPORT OF DROWNING IN CITY PARK DENIED

Members of the board of park commissioners at their meeting Wednesday called attention to an error in the report of the drowning of Jimmie Brownlee, young lad of 16 Carroll street, last Monday, and asked that it be corrected in the press. The drowning was in a creek near Maddox park, and not in the city pool there, as at first reported. There has been no accident nor fatality at the pool since the season opened.

Police Looking for Girls.

A search for two girls was instituted Wednesday by Atlanta police at the request of the parents. The girls sought are Annie Lou Kilpatrick, 16 years old, of 1440 Marietta street; Juanita Allen, 17 years old, of Chattanooga, Tenn. The former has not been seen or heard from by her mother since Monday, when she left home to come to town. Juanita Allen is believed to have come to Atlanta by her father.

GEORGIANS LEAVE CONVENTION CITY

Delegates and Parties Scatter to All Parts of Earth Following Close of Sessions at San Francisco.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOWAY, Special Staff Correspondent.

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—Georgians who attended the democratic national convention have scattered to all parts of the earth.

Senator and Mrs. William J. Harris and daughter, Julia, have gone with a congressional party to the Philippines, sailing just a few moments before the promulgation of Governor Cox was made in the early hours of Tuesday. Senator Harris presided over the convention a short time Tuesday, an honor that was conferred upon the Georgia senator present at one time or another.

W. T. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, of Macon, and Oden Persons, and his niece, the Misses Persons, of Forsyth, left for Yellowstone Park today.

Clark Howell and Mrs. Howell and their two boys, Albert and Julian, left for Yellowstone Park yesterday afternoon. Colonel P. A. Stovall and son will journey back by the northern route, stopping at points of interest. Lee Langley and Mrs. Langley, of Rome, are en route home, having left in advance of the party.

S. L. Rhorer and Mrs. Rhorer go to Yosemite and Los Angeles and will stop in Kentucky for a visit before returning home.

Go to Yosemite.

Mrs. and Mrs. Hollins Randolph left for Yosemite valley, Los Angeles and other points yesterday evening.

Mrs. James A. Holloway and little James Arthur will remain in San Francisco for several days, going thence to Yosemite valley and Los Angeles for a protracted stay and will return via Kansas City.

Where they will visit Mr. Holloway is en route to St. Louis and will return to Atlanta at once, thence going to Ohio to meet Governor Cox.

Sam Dunbar and Mrs. Dunbar are en route to Washington direct. Colonel Sam Brown, of Albany, Dr. W. and two sons, Leet Chambers, Levi Reeves and J. B. Roberts, of Atlanta, and several others left for Portland, Me., to take boat to Vancouver, returning to Georgia via the Canadian Pacific and Chicago.

Everybody Happy.

San Francisco hospitality and California attractions have captivated all of the Georgian visitors.

This added to the fact that the ladies in the party had full participation in the convention, having been chosen as delegates with half vote each and having taken a conspicuous part in the parades and demonstration, together with the additional fact that everybody is enthusiastic over the Cox-Roosevelt ticket and expect to see a routing of the democratic victory in November, all tend to create a general air of enthusiastic happiness around the Georgia contingent who crossed the continent to make a president.

OLD-TIME SHOUTING AT REVIVAL MEETING

At the morning service at Wesley Memorial church there was a most remarkable religious demonstration prior to the sermon. The feeling ran high and there was some shouting of the old-time kind. In some respects these meetings are more like those of the old Methodist days than have been seen in Atlanta in many years.

Rev. Charlie M. Dunaway preached tonight on some of the results of being filled with the Spirit, one being the grace of being established in the faith. His subject was illustrated with many striking things, and the service closed with a very pleasing singing service. At night the evangelist preached again a very earnest, pointed and plain sermon and much interest was manifested.

LOST SAVANNAH MAN SOUGHT BY WIFE HERE

J. L. Neil, 55 years old, is being sought by his wife, who came here from Savannah Wednesday morning and appealed to the police department to help locate her husband, whom she fears met foul play.

He came to Atlanta several days ago for the purpose of selling his real estate holdings, preparatory to making up his residence in Hamlet, N. C., where he intended to enter business.

Mrs. Neil formerly lived in Atlanta, Mr. Neil being connected with the Central of Georgia railroad as a traveling engineer. Later he was transferred to the Savannah office.

Any information concerning his whereabouts will be gratefully received by his wife at 224 North Moreland avenue, telephone IVY 2122-J.

Hubby, Now Rich, Deserts Her; Wife Drowns Herself

New York, July 7.—Humiliated and discouraged in the belief that other women had supplanted her in the affections of her husband as soon as he became rich, Mrs. Sally Bedell, wife of Daniel M. Bedell, millionaire broker and ex-alderman, is believed to have deliberately talked beyond her depth in one of the Central Park lagoons early today.

The woman was drowned and when the body was recovered, notes were found on the shore giving the names of women whom she accused of helping to break up her home.

Bedell, a member of the old Peter Cooper family which figures in the history of New York, was said to be out of town on a business or social trip. A man claiming to be his secretary identified the body as that of Mrs. Sally Bedell and said the couple had been living apart for about a year.

"I am the wife of Daniel M. Bedell," said one of the scribbled notes found by the policeman who brought the body ashore.

"I have stuck to him in adversity but when prosperity came he sought others."

Bedell's home address could not be ascertained because she had separated from him and was occupying temporary quarters in town while the divorce suit was pending at Garden City, Long Island. She recently gave up her apartment in town.

Bedell, known as "General" because of his interest in the Junior Red Cross, was a member of the association, is about 60 years old and served as alderman here for two years. He was a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

The wife appears to have been about 45 years old.

Lambert Arraigned.

Anniston, Ala., July 7.—Special Agent Walter Lambert, who shot and killed here two weeks ago, was arraigned before Judge E. D. Willett in the court of common pleas Tuesday afternoon and held without bond to await the action of the grand jury.

Lambert, a local coal dealer, was charged with the murder of a man, leaving the court with an accessory to the crime, was discharged. Only a few of the state's witnesses were examined, and no defense was offered by the accused man. The preliminary hearing lasted only an hour and a half.

CAN'T FIND WORDS TO STATE GRATITUDE

"I am convinced from the wonderful improvement Tanlac has made in my wife's health that there's nothing so good for a rundown system," said Jeff Chastain, 712 Chalmers street, Memphis, Tenn.

"She had pneumonia and for a time no hope was held out for her recovery. Finally the crisis passed, and she was able to sit up, but had to be lifted in and out of bed. She had no appetite and just lingered on in her weakened condition."

"I bought her a bottle of Tanlac and after a few days she had a splendid appetite and was up and about the house in so short a time that it actually surprised me. She is just about through taking her second bottle of Tanlac now and is like an entirely different person. She is gaining right along in weight. I am so thankful to see her well again that I just can't express my gratitude."

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy Co. (adv.)

Police Car Hit While Officers Are Probing Automobile Accident

While investigating a collision Wednesday morning between a truck and automobile in Forrest avenue, near Piedmont avenue, the machine which Call Officers Woodson and Webb drove and which was parked near the scene of the accident, was struck by a car driven by Lucius Johnson, who is said to have been speeding along Forrest avenue. A case of reckless driving, was docketed against him.

The accident which the officers were called to investigate resulted in injury to five persons—Bernard T. Littlepage, of 109 North Moreland avenue; G. H. Harwell, of 26 North Moreland avenue; Fred Zoll, of 37 Candler street; C. H. Waddy, chauffeur for the Pittsburgh, Plate Glass company, and Tom Bowers, negro employee of the company, who was on the truck with Mr. Waddy.

According to the officers, Waddy, who was driving the truck of the glass company, attempted to pass a truck loaded with dirt, and in doing so his machine skidded into the automobile of Littlepage, in which Zoll and Harwell were riding. The general slippery condition of the street is given as the cause of the collision.

VETERANS' SONS PLAN FOR HOUSTON REUNION

The regular quarterly meeting and smoker of the John B. Gordon camp, No. 44, Sons of Confederate Veterans, which was to have been held Thursday night, July 8, has been postponed until a later date. The Confederate reunion will be held this year at Houston, Texas, October 5. The whole of Texas is greatly interested in making this one of the biggest and best reunions ever held. Very low rates are going to be given by the railroads. Definite plans for the reunion are now being made, and John Ashley Jones, commandant of the local camp and quartermaster-in-chief of the Sons, states that he will give out these plans shortly.

CAPITAL REMOVAL BEFORE SENATE

Dixon Resolution, Providing for Vote of People to Accept Macon Gift or Appropriation, Comes Up Today.

Capital removal is again before the legislature as the Dixon resolution introduced last summer, read the second time and recommitted to committee, came up for passage in the senate Wednesday in its regular order. When the body adjourned at 1 o'clock, debate on the measure was still in progress and it was carried over until Thursday as unfinished business.

The Dixon resolution, introduced by Senator Dixon, of the seventh, last summer, when the advocates of the removal of the capital to Macon saw that their original bill calling for removal was doomed to defeat. It provides that at the next general election there shall be submitted to the people for vote the option of accepting the Macon offer of a site for the capitol and aid in building same, or of authorizing the legislature to appropriate $2,000,000 with which to build a new governor's mansion and additions to the present capitol and to make the needed repairs on the capitol building in Atlanta.

Much opposition arose in the senate last summer upon the introduction of the resolution, as it was grounds that if such a step were taken only the democratic voters of the state would be given a voice in the matter, which would be unfair. He explained his views to the chair, stating that the state democratic committee is a political organization, and that as the legislature is not a political body, and not intended to be, they could not direct legislation through such channels.

President Olive ruled that the substitute resolution was in order, as the senate is a sovereign body, and no limitation is placed by the state constitution upon the proposed action.

Senator J. J. Flynt, of the twenty-sixth, spoke in favor of the resolution, stating: "This is a wise solution of an issue which has been before the state for some time, and will solve the question once and for all by letting the people voice their views. I want to put an end to all of this dodging the question and bring the issue out into the open."

Senator Ivan Allen, of the thirty-fifth, opposed the resolution, and showed the folly of taking any such steps as the bill proposed. "What is the use of us being up here if we are not going to decide questions in this senate chamber?" asked Senator Allen. "Are we not sent here by the people to decide questions which come before us? Should we shift the responsibility of that decision back to them whenever we have a chance?"

Senator Fowler of Macon, asked unanimous consent to extend the session until the resolution was disposed of, but as there was considerable objection voiced, the matter was under discussion when the senate adjourned and was carried over until Thursday as unfinished business.

Substitute Resolution.

A substitute to the resolution was introduced by Senator Dixon Wednesday which requested the democratic executive committee of the state to place on the ballots in the November democratic primary the same two alternatives provided for in the original resolution. Senator Fernor Barrett, of the thirty-first, objected to this on the

TRADE PERMITTED WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

States towards the recognition of any faction in control of soviet Russia has not changed. This government is not willing by means of political recognition to lend its assistance to a faction whose disregard of the principles of democracy is evidenced at home by the maintenance of a minority dictatorship, and abroad by an insidious campaign of propaganda to subvert popular government. Institutions expressive of the will of the majority.

The position thus outlined in the two pronouncements of the department is in substance the same as the United States proposed to adopt some months ago, as an alternative to the plan of trading with the Russian cooperative societies toward which the allies were then leaning. The American proposal, in practically the same form, was the decision of today, was laid before the supreme council, but abatement, had been decided on without consultation with the allies, and entirely independently of any course of action they might see fit to take.

"Putting One Over" on British.

In some official quarters in Washington the tendency is to regard this step of the government as one that "puts one over" on the British, since the negotiations entered into between Premier Lloyd-George and Krasin, the soviet envoy, have been broken off at least temporarily. But the real motive back of it is said to be a desire to "show up" the soviet government, which has been complaining all along of trade restrictions, and holding out the lure that it had any articles of marketable goods in Russia, ready to be shipped at once in case trade relations should be resumed.

Thus interpreted, the United States says to the soviet, "Put up or shut up. If you have these goods, trot them out; make your deliveries; get your money. It is understood, anyway, it's now up to you to show what you can do." The department of state, it is understood, counts on its move to succeed in simply knocking the props from under one of the bolshievs' marketable pieces of propaganda "stage property."

Merchants desiring to launch trading ventures under the new ruling must apply in regular course for export licenses, it was said at the department although the details of the process to be gone through by exporters are yet to be worked out. The war trade board will undoubtedly have its say as to what articles of export can be cleared of the charge of being "materials susceptible of immediate use for war purposes." Under this head it is supposed will come the locomotives turned out for Russian use by the Baldwin works in Pennsylvania, and other railway accessories. At any rate, the whole subject of what can and cannot be sent will likely remain in abeyance pending the return of Secretary of State Coby from the Pacific coast.

Today's decision, it was said, has no bearing one way or the other on the question of the deportation of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, the soviet "ambassador" to the United States.

All East Lake will be decorated with special illumination that will dazzle the eye and spin the brain. The decorations are in charge of Adman Lucian York. Swallowtail coats and evening clothes are barred, for this is going to be informal, indeed.

Woman Loses Purse.

The purse of Miss Billie Eugene Weaver, of 534 Ponce de Leon avenue, was snatched from her hand about 3:30 o'clock Wednesday night at the corner of Peachtree and Linden streets by an unknown negro. A large crowd gave chase to the thief, who escaped. Miss Weaver's purse contained a large cameo pin, two books on the Fourth National bank—one a savings department book, and the other in the checking department—also a ring containing a small-sized diamond and about $10 in money.

MEN'S CLOTHING GOES UP AGAIN IN FALL—BUY NOW

Lack of Credit Curtails Output, Say Wholesalers.

Notice was served yesterday on a long suffering public by Ward B. Stevens, secretary of the National Wholesale Men's Furnishings Association, that the present clothing prices will be succeeded by much higher charges in the fall and the time being now. The price cutting movement, he said, had been caused by a "back ward swing" in the banks, which was unbalanced, and plus stock was unloaded, and contrary to market conditions he said. The announcement of the Department of Justice in the fall would be met with the activities of the Department of Justice as "premature" altogether too radical in some respects altogether too radical.

Wholesalers and banks against whom no suspicion has been directed have suddenly been compelled to dispose of their inventories of goods worth millions of dollars at a discount of 25 to 35 per cent. The impulse of business, and it is won't save their splendid investments have dropped in price and why the government has sacrificed its efforts to stabilize the market by forcing the impairment and sacrifice of the finest securities in the world.

Mr. Stevens said cotton, woolen and silk factories have been forced to shut down by lack of credits, reducing production 25 to 35 per cent. This means inevitably higher prices this fall, he said.

The sea-island crop of 1919 was $816 a bale, which was 1919 was $816 a bale.

SUFFRAGE URGED BY GOVERNOR COX

chairman of the democratic state central committee stating Governor Cox desired the Louisiana legislature to ratify the federal suffrage amendment was read.

"I say this telegram is an insult to the intelligence of every member of this legislature," continued Mr. Dupre, speaking on a point of personal privilege. He spoke for several minutes amid the cheers of several opponents of female suffrage. The bill proposing to extend the suffrage to women by state amendment was killed in the senate this afternoon by a vote of 27 to 14, or one short of the required two-thirds majority.

The death of the resolution is believed certain. Thursday is the last session day of the general assembly and suspension of the rules in both houses of the legislature would be necessary to pass the measure. It is regarded as almost certain that this cannot be obtained.

VICTORY GAINED BY HIGHWAY BOARD

Governor Harris and Dr. Matheson. He hoped that the committee would act favorably on the appropriation.

Motion Is Carried.

A motion by Mr. DuBose, of Clarke, to defer action on the Technological school request until all of the branches of the university had been heard from, was denied and a motion of Mr. Moore, of Fulton, to report the bill favorably, was carried in the affirmative.

The committee then heard from Judge W. E. Thomas, of Valdosta, and President Powell, of the South Georgia Normal college. This institution is asking for $75,000 to complete a building and $15,000 increase in maintenance. Its present maintenance appropriation is $20,000. Decision will be reached later.

The educational institutions at Athens will present their claims to the committee at a meeting to be held Thursday afternoon, by the deciding vote of the chair.

THESE figures show the small effect that packers' profits have on either the price paid to the producer or the price paid by the consumer.

The packer is not responsible for high prices.

Swift & Company "turned over" its invested capital (capital stock and surplus) about six times in 1919.

This fact, coupled with our large volume of business, made it possible to operate on a profit of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cents per dollar of sales.

Our books are audited by certified public accountants.

We want the public to know and to understand our business.

SUFFRAGE CALL MADE BY UPSHAW

Urges Georgians to Pass Amendment and Win Political Prestige for the Democratic Party.

Congressman William D. Upshaw, who is very frank to say that he did not have any use for woman suffrage at one time, has just issued a statement to the public, especially addressed to the members of the Georgia general assembly, urging on that body the political value to the democratic party of passing the constitutional amendment.

The congressman from the fifth district declares the time has come for Georgia to end the long fight waged in this country, and to let the women have anything they want—well, maybe not that, but suffrage anyway.

He points out that the Georgia legislature is now in action, and in a position to rush the amendment through in a hurry and without expense to the state, and he thinks it poor political policy for democracy to let the amendment pass.

cratic Georgia to let the honors go to democratic North Carolina, Tennessee, or Florida, or to republican Vermont or Connecticut.

As to his conversion to the cause of the women, Mr. Upshaw says: "I used to be violently opposed to what was erroneously called 'woman's suffrage,' but gradually as I came to think about it I was led to see that there was no such thing as 'woman suffrage' per se, but that it is simply equal suffrage in a great, free democracy, where woman contributes as much patriotism and as much intelligence to the building and the guardianship of the commonwealth as man."

Congressman Upshaw, expressed himself Wednesday as being highly pleased at the action of the democratic committee in selecting Cox and Roosevelt as its nominees, and predicted a victory for the party in the coming election.

The following statement was made by Mr. Upshaw: "The conviction grows on me that the democratic convention made the strongest possible nomination."

"You've got to hand it to any man who can be elected three times governor of a great state like Ohio, who's a vigorous statesmanship, who handles out three constructive progressive administrations, and who, through it all, keeps his strong grip on the masses as the friend of humanity."

While Governor Cox has been an honest opponent of prohibition, he has come out squarely for the majority of the law, declaring it would be a national crime not to enforce.

But, after all, and first of all, I feel that I can trust a man who, in tears, prays for a half hour at his mother's grave after receiving the news of his nomination. That act challenged the faith of every skeptic, and was a moral and spiritual tonic to me. The paying of the bill to Franklin D. Roosevelt, I know him as a handsome, knightly, Christian man."

"It is a great and winning ticket."

Mr. Upshaw sent the following telegram of congratulations to Governor Cox: Hon. James M. Cox, Next President, Dayton, Ohio: Hearty congratulations and prophecy of victory. While frankly, you were not my first choice, I now feel that the nation can trust at its helm a man with your rate of administration record as governor, who prayed at his mother's grave for the help and guidance of Almighty God.

(Signed) "WM. D. UPSHAW, Congressman Fifth District of Georgia"

HIGHER FEES WANTED FOR MUNICIPAL COURT Report Putting Fulton County on "Open Shop" Basis Adopted.

The county commission at its meeting Wednesday recommended that Fulton county members of the legislature be asked to urge the passage of a bill increasing the cost of litigation in the municipal courts. Commissioner Paul Etheridge was appointed to present the bill to the Fulton representatives.

The bill as recommended by the commission seeks to have the legislature raise the rate of cost in the municipal court in suits above $100 about 15 per cent; in suits $100 and less the cost is to be the same as charged in justice of the peace courts throughout the state. It was explained that when the municipal court was created by the legislature that the cost for suits of $100 and less was fixed at the cost prevailing in the justice of the peace courts. Since that time the legislature has raised the rate of costs in the municipal court, it was pointed out, but that the municipal court has never been self-sustaining and that an increase in the rate of cost would throw the deficit on the litigants instead of the taxpayer.

Charges preferred against County Policemen E. Frank Donohue and A. A. Atkinson will be heard at a special session of the county commission Friday, July 16, at 2:30 o'clock. Both sides announced that they would be ready to appear at that time.

George M. Wilson, attorney for David Jeremiah, made formal charge that on June 30 County Policemen Donohue and Atkinson arrested Jeremiah "inflicted four scalp wounds on his head without provocation or excuse."

The commission let the contract for the construction of a concrete bridge over Peachtree creek. The lowest bid, $29,000, was submitted by the Pittman Construction Company, which submitted the lowest bid in its specifications. In asking for bids on its specifications, the county would furnish the cement and asphalt. The contract was given to the McDougald Construction Company.

The commission adopted the recommendation of the public works committee declaring the shops maintained by the county to be on the "open shop" basis. This open shop policy was declared by the public works committee after the blacksmiths and engineers had walked out when the county refused to grant increases in pay.

"There isn't much I don't know about the English language," boasted the long-haired man in the club. "I'll test you, replied a friend. "I'll dictate a paragraph to you." With an assured air, the boaster seized his pencil, but his jaw dropped as he heard the following:

The golfer was quite out of practice the end of the first round, he suddenly became the center of the extreme glumness of his caddie. With force, and played like it. Nearing the green he challenged his caddie with: "Have you ever caddied for a worse player than myself?" The caddie remained silent. Two more holes were played. The golfer thought his caddie must be deaf. Again he addressed him: "Have you ever caddied for a worse player than myself?" "The caddie removed his pipe from his mouth, he heard you from first time," he replied. "I'm still thinking!"—Titt-Bits.

OUR BEST EXAMPLE

The Georgia Railway and Power Company is not singled out for attack by us. It is the largest of the companies doing business in Georgia. It controls approximately one-half of our developed water powers. Its rates are the lowest in the state. Its officers are among the ablest of their kind, and the Company itself is believed to be among the best. Therefore, we use it as an example. Its failure to meet the needs in Georgia demonstrates beyond dispute the impossibility of the continuance of the present system.

The proneness of the officers of the Georgia Railway and Power Company to meet arguments and facts with billingsgate or personal abuse should not be held against them. They must do this or remain silent. They cannot answer the facts.

SELLING WATER AS BEEF

The stock man knew a thing or two.

Cattle sold by the pound. Water was plentiful.

The day of the sale the stockman herded his thirsty beeves through cooling streams and filled them full of water, then put them on the scales.

The buyer was buying beef. The scales were honest, but the buyer was stung. Water has weight, but it is not meat to sell and eat. Hence the expression, "watered stock."

Public utilities are the herds, the promoters the stockmen. Service Commissions, such as the Railroad Commission of Georgia, are the honest scales. The weighing is the making of rates and you are the buyer. Will you get stung?

One big herd wearing the Georgia Railway and Power Company brand came from the North Georgia Electric Company.

In 1908, Charles E. Parsons, an engineer, examined the properties of this Company for C. Elmer Smith, Esq., of York, Pa., subsequently a director of the Georgia Railway and Power Company. Many of the assets were intangible, such as "engineering salaries, legal expenses," etc., but among the tangibles shown by Mr. Parsons' report were these:

"Dunlap Water Power, including dam, transformer house, Gainesville, distributing system and park	$235,724.72
"Wilson Water Power	55,611.46
"Atlanta Tower Line and right of way	116,720.89
"Buford Distributing System	11,403.64
"Newman Water Power	52,718.12
"Cornelia and Lula Water Powers	14,777.84
"Demorest Water Power	6,553.21
"Buford Water Power	7,765.70
"Tallulah Falls Water Power	3,952.18
"Cox Water Power

The report gave the cost of the "total assets" as $884,764.36, and showed that 4,200 horse power had been developed, while an expenditure of $4,471,780 would develop 62,450 horse power more, making the total development 66,650 horse power, at a total cost of $5,356,544.36.

But the Atlanta National Bank says to develop 187,000 horse power in Georgia has cost over $100,000,000. The cost would have been $85,040,000 less, or only $14,960,000, if the work had been done at the cost estimated by the engineer of C. Elmer Smith, Esq.

How do you account for the difference? Water in the stock.

A herd has many steers. In the herd, of which we speak, one horse power is the steer.

The weight of one steer, or rather the cost of developing one horse power, according to the engineer, was to be approximately $80.00, but from the figures of the Atlanta National Bank, the weight, or cost in Georgia has been over six times as much, or $535.00 per horse power.

Certainly those steers had capacity for carrying water.

Possibly the Bank, whose President is one of the local directors of the Georgia Railway and Power Company, only estimated, with a friendly eye, the weight of the herd, while he figured a possible sale, or the making of a rate.

WATER STAGGERED RAILROAD COMMISSION

In 1912, Mr. Murphy Candler and Judge George Hillyer, of the Railroad Commission, became alarmed at the amount of water being imbibed by the stock of the Georgia Railway & Power Company. They protested against a part of it. The "doctors" for the Power Company, the engineers, testified that—

To develop a horse power would cost only $93.00, and this horse power developed could be capitalized at more than three times that amount. The "doctors" meant that—

You, O Buyer, selected to be stung, would be made to pay, as if the cost had really been $300.00 instead of only $93.00.

Experts solemnly said that if the Commission stopped the watering the Company would die, and North Georgia would suffer grievous harm. So the herd drank on. The water went in. An issue of $27,000,000 of stock and $30,000,000 of bonds, a capitalization of $57,000,000 was authorized.

In 1918, $27,000,000 of stock and $14,808,000 of bonds, a total of $41,808,000 in securities had been issued, but the decision of the Railroad Commission in August of that year, disclosed that the actual cost of the developed properties belonging to the Company had been only $14,123,730.00, or $684,270 less than the face of the outstanding bonds.

What, then, has become of the other $27,684,270 in capital? And why this wait at the weighing scale?

The herd is having trouble carrying the water.

The weight, or cost of each steer or horse power, when the herd numbered 100,000, was, as reckoned by the Railroad Commission from the Company's books, $141.23, just $48.23 more than "Doctor" Engineer had estimated, but there is the water bringing each horse power to $418.08, and making every one of them look like $335.00 to friend Bank.

Too much Adam's Ale. The mad milling of the herd gets worse, they stagger more, when "Doctor" Engineer Asdit takes the stand, gives them the "once over" and values the present herd at $40,691,686, although Herdsmen Arkwright and Atkinson swear that no one on earth will lend them a cent more at their herd, until you, dear buyer, are made to pony up more cash. Strange, isn't it?

The purpose is to convince the Railroad Commission that—

Although the Company's engineers in 1912 estimated that it would cost only $9,000,000.00 to develop 100,000 horse power and the Company's books show that the cost of acquiring and developing the developed property was only $14,123,730.00 in August, 1918, in June, 1920, less than one year and a half later, the value of the property is approximately $41,808,000.

Why? You can be made under the law to pay a fair return upon the value of the property, but no more. Eight per cent on $14,123,730.00 is $1,129,898.40, while eight per cent on $40,691,686 is $3,255,334.88. Do you get the point?

BLOW THREATENS OUR CHILDREN

If the Company should succeed in convincing the Railroad Commission and the same process should continue, with the same results, throughout the development of the other 417,000 of undeveloped water power controlled by the Georgia Railway and Power Company, although the actual cost of the additional development would have been only $8,045,530.00, you would be called upon to help to pay a return upon $171,830,880 more. Eight per cent upon the difference of $13,785,350.00 would be $9,108,280.00 per annum, or every year $1,416,383 more than the total tax receipts of Georgia in 1918.

Georgia has, according to our engineer's reports, 2,152,850 undeveloped horse power. To develop this power at the actual cost shown by the Railroad Commission's decision of 1918 would cost approximately $303,551,850.00. The development, as shown by the experience of Ontario, would pay for itself from its earnings, at rates for light far lower than those in Georgia, without the imposition of one dollar of tax.

But, if to the actual cost, water is added, bringing the apparent cost to $418 a horse power, the cost would reach the staggering sum of $899,891,300.00.

The cost of the present system of development is prohibitive, when examined in the light of the experience of the best of its examples.

To pay 8 per cent upon the difference, $396,339,450.00 in cost would impose a tax of $47,707,156.00 a year upon our people—more than six times the total receipts from taxes by the state in 1918. It is unthinkable. The Municipalities of Georgia ask the General Assembly to untie the hands of the State and her people. They should be free to deal with the corporations.

THE STATE SHOULD ACT

BRITAIN TO RENEW HER JAP ALLIANCE

American and Australian Sentiment May Be Estranged Over Question of China's Future.

London, July 7.—Announcement has been made here that Britain will probably renew her alliance with Japan, which expires July 20, 1921. The renewed treaty, it is declared, will contain the clause which was inserted in the revision of 1911, safeguarding Britain against being called upon to support Japan in any quarrel with the United States. This, it is added, will be the first treaty of importance to be submitted to the league of nations for approval. Discussions on this renewal of the treaty are expected to reveal the secret treaty of 1911 between Japan and China, which is supposed to give Japan a large measure of military control in China and which has not been disclosed to Britain. Renewal of the alliance has long been taken for granted in Tokyo and apparently at the foreign office here. Abrogation of the alliance, its defenders say, would play into the hands of bolshevism throughout the near and middle east. It would further provoke, they continue, bolshevik unrest in Siberia which has now been "liberated" by Japanese occupation. It is true, they say further, that the revision of 1911 was resented in Japan, but Japanese opinion has been reconciled by this time to the American safeguards then incorporated in the treaty. At the same time, there is a large body of opinion within the British Empire to be reconciled before the treaty can be renewed. Australian sentiment against the treaty must be reconciled, but the London press believes that the Australian position can be made clear without creating the impression that Australia is wholly opposed to the alliance. Chinese sentiment against it is looked upon in London as "irresponsible" and Russian sentiment against it has no standing in court. The British foreign office has taken occasion to point to Japan's war record and principally to its checking of the bolshevik advance in Siberia as ground for renewing the alliance. Among liberal-minded Englishmen, China is the leading factor in Anglo-Japanese relations. It is more than the mere question of whether Japan intends to pursue her policy of domination in China or to permit the Chinese "open door" to stand; it is a matter of seeing right Japan's record of the last five years toward China. Japan is a poor country in natural resources. Her mineral wealth is negligible. China, on the other hand, is wealthy and economically undeveloped. The result has been one of ruthless domination, but little removed from Prussianism. In 1915, Peking was presented by Tokyo with the twenty-one demands. The most significant of these were concealed from Britain, while 18 of them were enforced by ultimatum. In 1916, two treaties, embodying a little policy toward China, were concluded between Tsarist Russia and Japan, one of which was also concluded without the knowledge of Britain. In 1917, a secret treaty was concluded between Britain, France, Russia and Japan which guaranteed to Japan all Germany's administrative and concessions in the far east. By these steps Japan's hold upon China has been slowly tightened. At present, possibly in view of the pending renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, her policy toward China is less aggressive and militarist. It is difficult to conclude from this eleventh hour change of heart on the part of Japan, however, the institution of any permanent new policy toward China. Her present policy in Manchuria and Siberia, in fact, goes far toward discrediting whatever conciliatory policy she may at the moment be exercising toward China. Since the collapse of Russia, an opportunity has been lost by Japan to dispatch troops for the occupation of Siberia, nor has she hesitated to dispatch a greater number of troops than are necessary for the guarding and occupation of certain railroads and territories. American opinion in London is deeply concerned with the fate of China. The possibility of that long suffering country's assuming offensive operations against Japan is not being overlooked. Assuming that such a war did come about in the far east, American sympathy would be with China, and American opinion would desire that British opinion should stand with it in this respect. American opinion would also prefer to see British opinion ranged alongside it in the event of a vigorous American policy against Japan upon the question of American markets in China. It is China which is the danger spot in any consideration of a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty. The renewal of the danger spot depends upon the clear and convincing statement by Japan of a modified policy toward China. Whether Japan is able to redeem her past record toward China and present proofs which will satisfy North American and Australian opposition may be judged by her policy with respect to Shanghai, which she has guaranteed to "code," but which she is nevertheless determined to possess. In the light of this significant circumstance, the renewal of the treaty between Britain and Japan against China, and it is to be feared, alienation from Britain all those peoples who are deeply concerned with the future of China. The big motor car had turned upside down, burying the motorist under it, but the village constable was not to be thus lightly turned from his duty. "It's no use your hiding there," he said, severely. Governor Cox appeared well pleased with the selection made by the convention and at once dictated the congratulatory telegram, which he sent to Mr. Roosevelt and also the one sent to his campaign manager, E. H. Moore.

The governor admitted he was not intimately acquainted with Mr. Roosevelt, but declared him to be a vigorous, upstanding, courageous and progressive democrat. He commented particularly upon two addresses made by the vice presidential candidate, one before the national democratic committee in Chicago last winter and the other in Washington, which gave him a wide experience and a wide acquaintance.

Speaks to Housefolks.

In his first public address after his nomination, in Middletown last night, Governor Cox declared in commenting upon the industrial unrest in the world, that "any attempt to exploit class hatred is equally dangerous as the bolshevism in Europe."

He asserted that the golden rule works much better than the rule of the bayonet, and that in all industrial disputes, there is a middle ground which will be followed in order that justice be done to all.

Those in public places must guard the freedom of the many from the exploits of the few," he said.

Governor Cox said he would make no plans for the campaign until he has had an opportunity to confer with party leaders, most of whom will be back from San Francisco until the latter part of the week. He said he may go to the executive office in Columbus today or tomorrow to clean up work there.

That his campaign will be one of the front porch variety planned by Senator Harding, the republican candidate, was the inference drawn here from his telegram of acceptance wired to Convention Chairman Robinson yesterday.

Governor Cox was busy today at his newspaper office trying to read a portion of the thousands of congratulatory telegrams which have been pouring in since his nomination. He arrived at the office at 2:30 o'clock, fresh and energetic.

With him perusing the telegrams was Colonel George H. Wood, his former adjutant general.

Among the congratulatory telegrams received was one from William G. McAdoo, his chief opponent for the nomination. It said: "Heartiest congratulations and assurances of my cordial support. Others come from Vice President and Mrs. Marshall and Senator Carter Glass.

Franklin D. Roosevelt sent the following telegram in response to the governor's last night: "The sincerest congratulations and warm regards of your teammate are all yours. I will stop off on my way east to convey to you in person."

Message from Watterson.

One of the most highly prized felicitations came from Colonel Henry Watterson. The governor said he was particularly pleased over it because Colonel Watterson represented to him the ideal journalist. Colonel Watterson's telegram said: "Your nomination revivifies democracy, will still the democratic heart of the nation with a reflection of a triumphant and the forest of a radiant future. To the bosom of an old Kentuckian it brings a flood of fighting memories along with the assurance of glorious victory."

Another highly-prized message came from Jake Daubert, of The Cincinnati Reds. It said: "It was in the stars that the Reds should win the pennant. It is in the stars that you should be president." The first part of the message was the governor's own language in congratulating the Reds on winning the pennant. Tom Rickard, boxing promoter, also sent congratulations.

Governor Cox said he had received congratulatory messages from every candidate before the San Francisco convention, and that the ranks of labor and equally as many from business men throughout the state.

The governor and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who was a candidate for the republic, had played golf together at Augusta, Ga. In his message of congratulation, Butler stated he was not to "let politics entirely cut out of life."

Governor Cox is a golf enthusiast. He will address contenders in the Ohio golf tournament tonight at a dinner at the Dayton Country Club.

NEW YORKERS GAVE MILLION FOR WOOD

saying they understood it was to be spent to elect untrained delegates favorable to Lowden.

John Albus, of St. Joseph, Mo., explained that "a popular man was made a candidate for delegate and while the move seemed favorable to Lowden, he openly was looked upon as unscrupulous."

Mr. E. Rhodes filed a sworn statement, in which he denied receiving any money from Babler for any purpose while Babler stated he gave Rhodes $200, of which $150 was returned.

Probe for Palmer.

The senate committee investigating discreditable conduct of the republican party, is now probing for Palmer.

Mr. Armstrong's documents consisted of a printed book of fifty-two pages. He charged the department of justice with attempting to "prevent indictments being returned against the New York Central railroad by a federal grand jury," and said "a democratic member of congress" agreed with certain persons to obtain $27,178.13 from the government on post-war claims if given 25 per cent.

Details of his charges are expected to be brought out later.

Mr. Goltra is in San Francisco, it was said, and may not be able to reach here for several days. If he can come this week he will appear before the committee immediately, but if delayed he probably will be called at another hearing, Senator Kenyon said.

Million for Wood.

One million dollars with which to further the campaign of Major General Leonard Wood for the republican nomination for president was underwritten by a group of New York men a year ago, William Loeb, eastern treasurer for Wood, told the investigating committee.

Mr. Loeb said he was called into conference with George Whelan, Rufus Patterson, Colonel Ambrose Monell, Zoth Freeman and others, to give his opinion on what Wood's campaign would cost.

He estimated the expense at $1,000,000. He told the committee, "Colonel Monell underwrote $250,000, Mr. Whelan $250,000, Mr. William Cooper Procter, $250,000, and I agreed to get the balance."

Mr. Loeb declared $400,000 passed through his hands, but said the men who gave it to him misappropriated it from some one else.

J. B. Duke was one contributor to this $1,000,000. George Whelan gave $100,000, and H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil company, $50,000. Loeb said. He asserted these men might have obtained the money from others.

Denied by Procter.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 7.—Colonel W. Cooper Procter, of Cincinnati, who managed the campaign of General Wood, said today that he knew absolutely nothing about underwriting of the Wood campaign fund for a million dollars as he was not present at the meeting.

Lady Astor Gets More Equality, Less Politeness

BY NINA BANCROFT, United News Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, July 7.—The novelty of the advent of Lady Astor to the house of commons is beginning to wear off.

Members say that when she rises to speak, nowadays, there is no more curiosity evinced by the hearers than if she were one of the males. In fact, part of the masculine element declares resentfully that the noble lady shows a disposition to lecture, and is apt to call the ordinary male members reactionary if they fail to agree with any of her ideas.

Some nine months have now elapsed since the first lady member made her debut, and the great part of that period, most of her speeches and comments were carefully listened to and faithfully recorded. Even those who happened to differ with her views, chose their words with due regard to the fact that they were dealing with a woman.

Lately, however, Lady Astor has been receiving more real equality and less politeness. At one time the house had no smiles for her wit, but now they are winking up to a realization that some of their own jokes are pretty good.

When Lady Astor's ideas on the drink question first became known, newspaper comment was restrained. Usually, the articles would start out, "I hate to disagree with Lady Astor, but she is a little bit too charming as Lady Astor, etc., etc., etc., but—then came a politely worded difference of opinion. But now the newspapers, ashamed of their prolonged emasculatation, are hitting out in a style consistent with the much-talked-of sex equality.

JOHNSON BEHIND G. O. P. PLATFORM

Urges Support of Republican Party as the Only Means "of Safeguarding and Protecting Our Americanism."

San Francisco, July 7.—Support of the republican party, "with a candidate standing four-square upon the platform," is the only choice left "those who believe in safeguarding, protecting and preserving our Americanism," Senator William W. Johnson, of California, declared in a statement at his home here today.

"For more than a year the contest over the president's league of nations has been waged in congress," Senator Johnson's statement said. "It has been the all-engrossing issue among nations which it proposed to prevent, and repudiated, to degree wholly unnecessary and unjustifiable, the time-honored policies in favor of peace declared by Washington, Jefferson and Monroe."

"The republican party stands, therefore, firmly against the president's covenant, as presented, because it is breaking war, rather than promoting peace, and reaffirming the time-honored, nation-old policies in favor of peace declared by Washington, Jefferson and Monroe."

"The democratic party, on the other hand, rejected every effort to modify or qualify the president's proposed league of nations, endorsed the president's attitude, and took position in favor of the league as presented. It is true that the democrats, in effort to placate, say something about reservations which make clearer or more specific the obligations of the United States, but the language is meaningless, and does not at all alter the essential position of the democratic party for the league as presented."

Issue Before People.

"The two parties acted in similar fashion in one respect, but for different motives and for different reasons. Both rejected the pleas for adoption of the league with reservations, the democrats because they were for the league as presented, and the republicans because no reservations devised by the human mind could anticipate the corollaries which might arise in the future from an instrument of such potential possibilities for harm."

"Thus the issue finally comes from the forum of congress to the ballot box of the American people. The overshadowing question in the campaign, therefore, is whether we are to accept the policy of European and Asiatic politics and diplomacy, and become a part of the imperialist system of the Old World, or whether America shall live her life in her own way, independent, untrammelled, and always of her traditions of humanity and civilization, but free to act as each crisis shall arise, and maintaining the policy of Washington, Jefferson and Monroe, of friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none."

"With a candidate standing four-square upon the platform, the issues leave no room for compromise in safeguarding, protecting our Americanism, but one choice, and that, is to support the republican party."

According to the will of Adam Doeck, who died last year at Hollywood, Cal., has son, a St. Louis man, will have to accept $100,000, exclusive of his home, in order to receive his share, about $19,000, of his father's estate.

Armed Volunteers

Patrolling Paris Following Lynching

Paris, Te., July 7.—Paris was quiet today and danger of race trouble as a result of the burning at the stake at the fair grounds here last night of Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, appears to have passed. Patrols of armed volunteers who patrolled the streets after the two negroes were put to death were withdrawn this morning and conditions now apparently are normal.

Sheriff Clarkson and his two deputies were away in search of other negroes suspected of implication in the killing of the Hodges. The mayor of Paris, it is said, is organizing squads of volunteers and sending them into the negro quarter as a safety measure.

The Arthur were captured near Vallant, Okla. Sunday night by a posse and brought to the jail here. Last night a crowd appeared suddenly, stormed the jail and took the prisoners to the fair grounds where a stake and fuel had been prepared. According to officials, the Hodges were killed during a dispute over money alleged to be due them from the negro tenants.

County officials today were discussing a report from Iabel, Okla., that Sheriff Clarkson, who passed through there last night in search of suspects, the men lynched may not have been guilty. According to R. E. Eubanks, county attorney, however, the negroes while at the jail made circumstantial statements admitting the killings.

BOLSHEVIKI ATTACK ON 720-MILE FRONT

Poles Obligated to Retire at Many Points in Face of Superior Numbers.

Warsaw, July 6.—By the Associated Press.—Along a front of approximately 720 miles, the Russian bolsheviks have launched the greatest attack they have ever hurled against the Polish lines. On the northern and southern flanks the Poles are retiring in the face of superior enemy forces; the attack on the northern sector being the most severe of the struggle on this front.

Faced with the necessity of shortening their line, the Poles have begun a withdrawal at all points.

TO HOLD PLEBISCITE IN TESCHEN REGION

Paris, July 7.—The council of ambassadors has notified the Polish and Czech-Slovak delegations that since no agreement has been reached by them to arbitrate the Teschen question, a plebiscite in that region will be held.

Although the council of ambassadors recently proposed the substitution of arbitration for the plebiscite in settlement of the Teschen question, the Czech-Slovak national assembly voted in favor of a plebiscite to determine whether the Teschen district should be under Czech or Polish rule. It was said the Czech-Slovak assembly was satisfied the belief that a just and correct solution of the question could not be had through arbitration.

If You Are Easily Tired Out, Your Blood Needs Purifying

Clogged-up Impurities Will Undermine Your Health.

As summer approaches the impurities that have been accumulating in the system throughout the winter begin to clog up the circulation, causing a general weakness and debilitated condition that is generally known as "Summer Sickness."

The first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradually lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown. Children just at this season are peevish and irritable, and become puny and lifeless.

This whole condition is but the result of impurities in the blood that have been accumulating and make themselves felt more distinctly with the change of season. They show that nature needs assistance in giving the system a general housecleaning.

Nearly everybody just now needs a few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, to cleanse out all impurities. It is good for the children, for it gives them new strength and puts their system in condition so they can more easily resist the many ailments so prevalent in summer. S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

Mrs. Cumble Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema On Child

Negro Exonerates Farmer.

Macon, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—W. H. Jackson, a well-known white man of Jones county, and Alex. Jackson, a negro, have been bound over to the United States district court in $1,000 each on charges of illicit stilling, following a raid by federal officers on a still located near J. Jackson's home. The still was a 10-gallon affair, and the officers claim they found 500 gallons of grape peaches ready to be distilled into peach brandy. The negro took full blame for the operation of the still. Mr. Jackson pleaded not guilty.

TO GET STRONG AND PUT ON FLESH

People who have tried it say that one of the quickest and surest ways in which those who are weak, thin, nervous and run-down can grow strong and put on pounds of solid stay-there flesh, is to take a 5-grain tablet of Blood-Iron Phosphate with each meal. This is doubtless due to the well-known fact that Blood-Iron Phosphate quickly builds up depleted nervous energy and at the same time supplies the iron necessary to make rich, red, strength-building blood. If you are weak, thin, nervous, or are lacking in the old time vigor, endurance and optimism, go to Jacobs' Pharmacy or any other good drug store and get enough Blood-Iron Phosphate to last three weeks and take as directed. If at the end of three weeks you don't feel one hundred percent better and aren't in every way satisfied you can have your money back for the asking. Fair, isn't it? Better it today. (adv.)

DELEGATES BOARD TRAINS FOR HOME

Great Scramble for Transportation at San Francisco—Democrats Elated Over Party Harmony Shown.

San Francisco, July 7.—Delegates to the democratic national convention, their work done and the big gathering adjourned in a last roar of enthusiasm for the party standard-bearers, Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, were scrambling today for train accommodations homeward. Every string of departing sleepers heading east, north or south was loaded to capacity, and men who will play important roles in the fight for election of the ticket were hurrying away to delayed vacations and on sight-seeing tours in the west preparatory to the struggle ahead.

Mr. Roosevelt was due to leave during the day for Dayton, Ohio, to consult with Governor Cox, where preliminary plans for the campaign will be mapped out, subject to amendment later when the party machinery is organized and the necessary advisers selected. The assistant secretary intends to resign from the navy department as soon as he can clear up his desk, and he will spend ten days or so in Washington for that purpose before snatching his plans for the campaign. Democratic leaders were elated over the spirit of harmony which marked the last hours of the convention. There has been good feeling and tolerance shown throughout the long struggle to reach a

JUDGE EVE REVIEWS COLONIAL PROFITEERS

Tifton, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—Judge Eve, in his charge to the Tift county grand jury Tuesday, went back to the foundation of our government and the steps which finally led to the adoption of the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Georgia. "Men should gladly pay the taxes levied as they should readily render another service to which their state calls them," he said. "In reading up on the subject of taxation, I found a rather peculiar condition existing in 1783. Georgia was at that time divided into districts, and that portion most densely populated was levied off. These lands were considered far more valuable, for all of the remainder of the state was lumped together and taxed 1 cent an acre. "I find that profiteering was as unpopular in 1783 as it is today. Tavern keepers were licensed then by the judges of the inferior courts, and on the first of each year these justices were required to fix the scale of prices for liquor, lodging, and other services. If any overcharge, the injured party had a right to recover $10 in addition to the excess charged. Our automobile tax is no novelty, for in 1808 each survey and buggy was taxed 50 cents; each carriage or enclosed vehicle, $1; every stage, from $4 to $10, according to the number of horses. So, you see, there is no new thing under the sun when it comes to taxation."

Colored Cloth Used to Make Pictures.

It is not often that an entirely new method of producing pictures is discovered, and an Oregon artist is attracting considerable attention with a process as pleasing as it is original. Instead of using pigments of any kind, bits of colored cloth, painstakingly cut to the particular shape and size of each detail of the work are pasted upon the canvas background, which is stretched over thin boards. Some of the almost infinitesimal particles of fabric are shredded out to mere threads to get the desired effect, while the bulkier objects of the scene are built up in relief, says a well illustrated article in the July number of Popular Mechanics Magazine. A sharp-pointed stick serves as a brush, and the curious art, which the finished picture exemplifying the remarkable results attained when the process is used, is co-ordinated.

CARTER ELECTRICS BEAT JONESBORO

The Carter Electric team, of the Fulton league, journeyed down to Jonesboro Monday, July 5, accompanied by a large number of supporters from Atlanta, where a fast ten-inning contest was played, the Carter Electric team winning by the score of 10 to 8. It was the first game that the Jonesboro team has lost this season. The features of the game were the fielding of both teams and a home run by Cody. Bryant and Holbrook played their positions in the outfield in jam-up style, both making some very pretty catches. Reeves and his battery partner, Bostwick, played a good game. The feature from a Jonesboro standpoint was the fielding of Lawrence in right field. Dupres made a fine one-handed catch of B. Cantrell's drive in the ninth that was tagged as a sure homer.

CLUB WILL OPPOSE LINDSAY'S BILL

Decatur, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—The West Dekalb Improvement club will meet Friday evening in the school auditorium in Kirkwood and entertain their ladies and themselves with a watermelon party. It is understood that the feature of the evening will be an attack by W. E. Saunders upon a bill which Paul L. Lindsay is said to be preparing for introduction in the legislature for the purpose of increasing the number of commissioners for DeKalb county from one, as at present, to five. It is also understood that Mr. Lindsay's bill names the four additional commissioners who will serve, and that they are Frank Carroll, of East Atlanta; R. J. Freeman, of Decatur; Richard Floyd, of Decatur; and John R. McCurdy, of Stone Mountain. Mr. Saunders has invited Mr. Lindsay to a meeting to defend his bill. Ladies will take part in the discussion, and the argument promises to be a warm one.

COX FULL OF FIGHT; SURE TO TAKE STUMP

Dayton, Ohio, July 7.—After his nomination Cox has inaugurated a vigorous campaign with every indication that he will take the stump. His first campaign move was to urge the Louisiana assembly to ratify the suffrage amendment. All his friends say Cox is full of fight and very anxious to swing around the circle. He wishes to take the campaign offensive and hold it. The central west will probably be the first Cox objective because he is not so well known there. Indications of the Cox fighting spirit were seen in his paper today. On a corner of the editorial page were these paragraphs: "Probably Senator Harding thinks the front porch is a more substantial structure to stand on than the republican platform." "Senator Lodge is said to have declared himself satisfied. So are we when we all get the white meat from the Christmas turkey."

Plans for conferences of Cox with party leaders are still in abeyance until their return from San Francisco. Lincoln, Nebraska, Bryan's home town, was among the first to organize.

THE HIGHWAY DECISION.

By unanimous decision the state supreme court has upheld the validity of the Georgia law, enacted by the general assembly a year ago, taxing owners of motor vehicles for state highway construction purposes.

This is a splendid victory for good roads in Georgia, in that it not only validates the funds that have accrued to the state from motor license fees paid, but at the same time it removes all semblance of cloud as to the constitutionality of the 1919 highway act and immunizes it from further attack in the courts.

The vehicle tax law was operating splendidly until something like a month ago, the validity of the act was questioned, on the ground that it was passed without a roll call in the senate.

The matter was carried to the superior court, where it was argued before Judge Pendleton, who sustained the view of the attorney general.

Thence it was taken to the supreme court for final adjudication; and the decision of that tribunal, handed down yesterday, ends all controversy as to the legality of the law, and consequently puts the state highway department upon a financial basis more firm than it ever was before.

Had the supreme court sustained the lower court and the opinion of Attorney General Denny the entire highway legislative program of which the motor vehicle tax law is the backbone—would of necessity have been thrown back into the general assembly, and made subject to possible entire revision, in order to correct whatever defect was found in the law.

Fortunately, such a necessity has been averted; and the legislature is free now to proceed with the consideration of whatever constructive measures its members may have in mind by which to strengthen the hands of the highway department and hasten and facilitate good roads development in Georgia.

CLIMATE TO SUIT ALL.

A writer in The London New Witness, answering one phase of the question—why people go to the United States, and "why they stop there," gives as a reason the freedom of life here and the wonderful variety of climate.

"In England," says this writer, "we settle down in a town, and only a violent exertion of will-power can extricate us, but in the United States—"

"A man may try twenty different towns and twenty different states before he finds one that suits him."

"Here we have practically no choice of climate (or lack of climate). On the other side you can get the bitter cold of North Dakota or the almost tropical heat of Florida, or you can be blown to pieces on the prairies or lie snug in a cleft of the hills looking over the Pacific. You can spin cotton in Connecticut or grow it in Georgia. You have a world to yourself, and one of the most beautiful worlds that has ever been discovered."

The chronic critics of town and country, here at home—in the high cost of living, and "the small purchasing power of the dollar," etc., might take into account some of the advantages outlined in the above extract and exchange the grouse for something like gratitude.

Sermon to Groucho.

There's a sermon that'll strike home in many a Groucho in this paragraph, from The Bureka Herald:

Where to Find Him.

The safety side for the wise Thomasville Times-Enterprise, as evidenced in this:

"When the tobacco prohibition wave comes rolling around we shall be numbered among the fighters in behalf of the women that smoke."

The Springfield Herald speaks of "an inch of rain falling unofficially—which is an ugly way for a shower to sneak in!"

"A man may try twenty different towns and twenty different states before he finds one that suits him."

"Here we have practically no choice of climate (or lack of climate). On the other side you can get the bitter cold of North Dakota or the almost tropical heat of Florida, or you can be blown to pieces on the prairies or lie snug in a cleft of the hills looking over the Pacific. You can spin cotton in Connecticut or grow it in Georgia. You have a world to yourself, and one of the most beautiful worlds that has ever been discovered."

HARDING'S BUSY WRITING SPEECH

Republican Nominee Glad to Hear That Senator Johnson Is Going to Support Party Ticket.

Marion, Ohio, July 7.—After several weeks spent in preliminary preparation, Senator Harding today began the actual writing of his speech to be delivered on July 22, accepting the republican presidential nomination. He expects to complete it in about ten days, during which time he plans to see but few visitors.

In order to get an early start on the speech, the senator arrived at his office in the Administration building, adjoining his home, several hours earlier than usual today, but found it locked. Seating himself on the front porch, he calmly waited until George Christian, his secretary, arrived some time later and unlocked the door.

Following a custom acquired while in active newspaper work, Senator Harding is writing his speech with a pencil on a scratch pad, from which it will later be copied on a typewriter. According to members of his office, the senator never dictated a speech, and after it has been once written out in longhand, seldom changes his copy.

The announcement by Senator Johnson, of California, that he would support the republican ticket when informed of it today, the statement did not seem to surprise him, as it has been understood around the Harding headquarters for some weeks that this would be the California senator's attitude.

"I am glad Senator Johnson is going to give the ticket his support," he said. "I am glad to know of everybody's support, and I would much rather have support on the grounds that our platform is appealing than on the grounds of interest in the nominee."

The Ohio senator added that throughout the campaign he intended to emphasize "interest in party." "It's going to be a fact in the campaign," said Senator Harding. "Attention was called to statements accredited to Governor Cox, the democratic party nominee, that he planned an intensive campaign with an extended speaking tour through the country."

Another quiet day is planned for tomorrow by the senator, who has no engagements and who intends to devote his entire time to his speech.

PARADE FEATURES ELKS' CONVENTION

Chicago, July 7.—The Benevolent Protective Order of Elks closed the third day of its week's convention here with a parade and banquet tonight, which was viewed by thousands.

With the line of march brilliantly decorated and illuminated, the parade was an imposing spectacle. Thirty-five floats were represented by elaborate floats, prepared at a cost of $75,000, while cowboys crack drill teams, in uniform, and huge delegations of Elks from all parts of the country, each group in a distinctive uniform or costume, added to the show. Thousands of decorated automobiles also had a place. Today's meeting of the grand lodge was marked by memorial services for the 1,037 Elks who lost their lives in the war and for other members who died within the year.

Special services were held for the past grand exalted ruler, John Henry Melvin and James L. Elms, Rev. Dr. John Dymart, newly elected grand chaplain, officiating.

The grand lodge also heard the report of the national Elks' war relief commission, of which John K. Tener, former governor of Pennsylvania, is chairman.

BRITISH COMMENT ON PARTY PLATFORMS

London, July 7.—Newspapers of London, in commenting on the Chicago and San Francisco conventions this morning, devote more attention to future relations between the United States and Great Britain, as upon the bearing the conventions will have on the domestic affairs of America.

"There is nothing in the declared policy of either Mr. Cox or Mr. Harding to disturb the most cordial relations between the two countries," says The Morning Post. Several journals warn the people here not to take a too serious view of utterances inevitable during the campaign by "certain groups in the United States who make twisting the lion's tail a favorite amusement."

The Times, recognizing affairs of Europe, especially of Great Britain, will be much discussed during the campaign, says.

"It would be wise to frankly ask ourselves whether it is strange if the progress of European affairs since the armistice should have induced in American minds a feeling of bewilderment bordering on alarm."

It is not the fashion in Russia to supply bedchamber, even in the best hotels. The traveler is expected to bring his sheets and his blankets with him if he requires them, and the custom is also observed in private houses.

Parents in Battle For 'Baby Marie,' Child Movie Star

Los Angeles, Cal., July 7.—"Baby Marie" Osborne, child movie star, appeared in a new part today. She played the role of "Bone of Contention" in a domestic tragedy.

Sitting quietly beside her negro nurse in the divorce court she listened to her father and mother, personally, and through lawyers, battle for her.

She seemed little disturbed when her father charged that her father, Leon Osborne, stayed out late at night in company with people other than his wife. She didn't seem to worry much either when her father charged her mother with giving such noisy parties at the family home that Baby Marie couldn't sleep and might become "temperamental."

Still less did it worry her that one of the main points the court is going to decide is who will have possession of her, and incidentally, the money she makes. In fact, Marie seemed far more interested in the judge's homely remarks and the "hear ye, hear ye" of the bailiffs.

Developed during the proceedings that Baby Marie at present is divided on a 50-50 basis. That is, the mother has possession of the child, and the father draws Marie's salary checks, and the salary is something like $100 a week. Marie gets a check every week that compares favorably with those drawn by bankers and railroad presidents.

Numerous persons well-known in the movie world are expected to testify in the case.

UNCLE SAM SETTLES WITH ONE RAILROAD

Washington, July 7.—The first settlement with a railroad company of all claims arising out of federal operation was announced today by the department of justice. The government has agreed to pay the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railroad $1,600,000 in cash.

The settlement is the result of the balancing of the claims of the railway company against the government and of the government's compensation due to the railroad for the use of its property by the government.

Nearly 500 claims by the various railroads of the country remain to be settled and officials of the railroad administration believe the majority will be adjusted on the jump sum basis after the settlement of the Spokane case. Claims of some railroads run as high as $12,000,000 and it is impossible to estimate the amount which will eventually be paid over by the government, officials said or the time necessary to wind up government control of the roads.

COMMENT IN FRANCE ON SELECTION OF COX

Paris, July 7.—Commenting on the nomination of James M. Cox, of Ohio, for the presidency of the United States by the democratic convention at San Francisco, Figaro says:

"It is difficult to predict Mr. Cox's foreign policy, if elected. We understand that foreign affairs interest him but little, and that he has mediocre confidence in the league of nations. There are many Americans of this opinion."

The Petit Parisien says: "Mr. Cox has proved to be a good politician on a small scale in his local election. It remains to be seen whether he is a statesman of the caliber to look after the affairs of America."

SEAPLANE GUIDED BY RADIO SIGNALS

Washington, July 7.—Guided entirely by radio compass signals, a navy seaplane, F-5, today left Norfolk and flew ninety-five miles on a beam to pick up the battleship Ohio at sea with no knowledge at the time of taking the air of the vessel's location. The seaplane then navigated its return to Norfolk entirely by radio compass.

Navy department officials to whom the flight was reported said it was the first time radio compass apparatus had been used to direct aircraft to a ship.

BOTH COX AND HARDING LISTEN TO SUFFRAGISTS

Governor Lends Influence in Louisiana—Senator to Receive Delegation.

Washington, July 7.—Senator Harding will receive a suffrage delegation at Marion July 22, the day on which he will be officially notified of his nomination.

Every effort is being made to win the thirty-sixty-sixth Congress. Senator Harding's assurance to Mrs. John Gordon Battelle, president of the Ohio Woman's Republican club, who made arrangements for the reception of the suffragists.

While the suffrage development came from the republican side, and there was some anticipation that Governor Cox would call a special suffrage session within a few days those dissenting suffrage leaders were pleased also with news from the democratic side.

Cox Acts Immediately. "A fine start," was the comment by Alice Paul, chairman of the party, on the telegram from Governor Cox urging suffrage ratification in Louisiana. By taking action on the day following his nomination, Governor Cox is evidently striving to make the suffrage plank of his platform an actuality.

The Louisiana legislature is meeting now in regular session. The amendment to the constitution providing for universal suffrage was passed on June 15 by a senate vote of 25 to 19, and in the house 67 to 44.

Another obstacle to the suffrage effort came today when Charles F. Fairchild, president of the National Constitutional league, filed a suit in the District of Columbia superior court to enjoin Secretary of State Coby from issuing a proclamation of ratification of the suffrage amendment.

Fairchild filed the suit in anticipation of the ratification of the amendment by the thirty-sixth state which would make it valid as soon as the formal proclamation was issued by Coby. Fairchild contends that the resolution of ratification was not properly passed in West Virginia, Arkansas and New Hampshire and that Tennessee has no right to act on the amendment.

At suffrage headquarters it was stated that the certificate of ratification had been filed from thirty-five states and that Coby had given assurance that he would issue a suffrage proclamation immediately after the thirty-sixth certificate was filed, without going into the legality of the official certificates.

FINDING OF KING WILL DESCRIBED BY MEANS

Chicago, July 7.—Gaston B. Means, principal figure in the fight to probate the alleged second will of the late James C. King, millionaire lumberman, on the stand today told of finding the document in a tin box while searching for papers pertaining to the affairs of Mrs. Maude C. King.

The alleged second will leaves Mr. King's millions to his wife, while the first will, which the probate court accepted, left the money to found a home for aged men. Mrs. King has since died. Means was tried and acquitted on a charge of murdering her at Concord, N. C.

Her sister, Mrs. Mary C. Melvin, and Means are fighting to have the second will probated, as the money would then go to Mrs. Melvin. Means is said to have a contract with the probate court for $500,000 if the will is probated.

Means told the court of meeting Mrs. King at the Hotel Marlborough in New York in 1914, and of his subsequent business relations with her here and at New York.

Handed the alleged second will for identification, he said he first saw it in August, 1915, when he found it in a tin box at the Hotel Marlborough in New York.

STRIKE TOTAL 3,374 IN UNITED STATES DURING PAST YEAR

Washington, July 7.—Strikes and lockouts in the United States during 1919 total 3,374, and affected more than 4,000,000 workers, according to a review issued today by the department of labor. Approximately one-half of the strikes occurred in five states, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois.

Although there were 31 more labor conflicts reported last year than in 1918, the total for 1919 was materially under that of 1916 and 1917. On the other hand, no strike in 1918 involved as many as 60,000 workers, while no less than nine walkouts last year interrupted the work of more than 60,000.

The department's review attributed the absence of violence in labor controversies during 1919 to less frequent use of strike-breakers.

WIFE'S MURDER LEADS TO OFFICER'S ARREST

Chicago, July 7.—Lieutenant Car. Wanderer, whose wife was killed in the vestibule of their apartment building several weeks ago, presumably by a man whom Wanderer killed in a pistol duel that followed war arrested last night with his brother-in-law and cousin, pending a further investigation of the case.

Wanderer said that the shooting that the man he killed had slain Mrs. Wanderer, whose wife was killed yesterday, and crashed through five floors to the basement.

The casualty list consists of but four persons, one of whom may die. Two full minutes were required for the fall to complete its fall, and the three men, who were taking inventories on the lower floor, were enabled to escape. The building is practically wrecked.

Advocates Barge Line.

Anniston, Ala., July 7.—(Special.)—State Senator John Craft, of Mobile, while here this morning, advocated the barge line via the company the transcontinental army convey from this city across the state. He suggested a bond issue for dredging the creek. Choccolocco creek flows about three miles south of Anniston and is easy of access from this city. From a point below Oxford it is about 30 miles to the junction of the creek with the Coosa river.

To Banish Wrinkles and Freshen Up Quickly

After a strenuous day outdoors, when winds, heat and exhaustion have caused the skin to wrinkle and sag—after a tedious or fretful day indoors—there is an urgent need for some quick restorer. Maybe there's a dance on the evening, or some social event, now in the world can one make herself presentable, looking as she does? It's quite easy.

Just get an ounce of powdered sassailla and a half pint of hot water at the nearest drug store, mix the two and bathe the face in the solution for two or three minutes. Then look into your mirror and behold the wonderful transformation! Wrinkles have vanished, those tired muscles have been rested and "firmed up," marks of fatigue have flown, and you look so much brighter and younger you can hardly believe your eyes. No one need hesitate to try this, the which hasel and sassailla being so perfectly harmless.—(adv.)

Baby's Food.
The high mortality of infants (one out of three) is due very largely to the fact that the baby cannot select its own food, as does the adult, but must take what is given it. Often the food is inferior in quality, or even positively poisonous.

How can the mother tell whether the baby's food is right? One way is to watch the actions. If they are regular and natural and the baby is gaining in weight, the food is all right. Constipation and diarrhoea both indicate indigestion and should have immediate attention.

To correct indigestion and regulate the stomach and bowels the baby specialists have perfected a gentle laxative and regulator called "Baby Ease" laxative, which the mother may obtain, with full directions, at any drug store. "Baby Ease" is an invaluable aid to the baby's health, and no mother should be without it for emergencies.

Do not use the strong and irritating laxatives such as are commonly used, nor anything containing opium or powerful drugs. They irritate the delicate organs and lead to chronic indigestion and constipation. "Baby Ease" laxative is a corrective and regulator as well as a gentle laxative, and will promptly and permanently correct indigestion, etc., diarrhoea and constipation. The mother should then look carefully to the purity, freshness and wholesomeness of the baby's food, the cleanliness of the bottles, etc., and should consult the physician if the child does not steadily gain in weight.—(adv.)

COTTON AND GRAIN EXCHANGE SOUGHT BY ATLANTA BUYER

A movement is now being started to obtain for Atlanta the American Cotton and Grain exchange, which is at present located in New York. J. E. Kirksey, an Atlanta cotton buyer, is of the opinion that this city can get the exchange, and is trying to procure the aid of the chamber of commerce and the convention bureau and other civic organizations of the city in the movement.

The first steps in the direction of the removal of the exchange to a southern city were made a few days ago, when Thomas G. Burke, manager of the membership division of the exchange, was in Atlanta and gave his opinion that the exchange should be moved to the South. Mr. Burke gave out that New Orleans would be in the running for the location of the exchange.

Atlanta's claims will probably be placed before Mr. Burke when he returns here in a few days. In the meantime, Mr. Kirksey will be busy stirring up enthusiasm among the Atlanta business men, and he hopes that the citizens of the city will get up enough interest to accomplish this undertaking.

Mr. Kirksey and several other Atlanta men are members of the exchange, which has been in operation for only two years, but which is one of the leading exchanges of the country.

Lash Disappearing, Declares Humane Society Pamphlet

"Good Men for Bad" is the title of a pamphlet which has recently come off the press, published by the Atlanta Humane society. The pamphlet is very short, containing the title story and an article on the flogging of prisoners under the caption, "The Lash is Disappearing."

The article classifies the different states of the union with reference to the humane treatment of prisoners, and laments the fact that the state of Georgia permits the use of the lash. According to this article, the states of South Carolina, Florida, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, California, Nevada, Utah, New Hampshire, Idaho, Colorado, Oregon, Washington, Montana, the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Ohio have either banished the lash by state law or eliminated its use on the part of the prison authorities.

FOURTH PLAGUE CASE FOUND IN PENSACOLA

Pensacola, Fla., July 7.—The fourth case of bubonic plague, officially reported here today. Citizens, in mass meeting, demanded that the commission pass an ordinance providing for rat extermination.

The last case of plague was Henry Hudson, driver for an express company. He was inoculated with serum. Mayor Sanders said today that the ordinance requested would be enacted by the commission as soon as it could be advertised to meet the requirements of the law. Word came from the surgeon general's office at Washington that unless rats in Pensacola are killed, the city would be placed under quarantine.

JEWELERS OF GEORGIA NEXT BIG CONVENTION

Twenty more conventions are scheduled for Atlanta during the rest of this year, according to "Cousin Fred" Houser Monday, who stated that during the month of June there were eighteen conventions in Atlanta, bringing a total of more than 6,500 delegates. The next convention will be the state convention of Georgia jewelers, who meet on July 12. There were no conventions during the week of July 5, something unusual for Atlanta.

MACON CORPORATION WILL BUILD HOMES

Macon, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—The organization of a home investment company to help finance the building needed to relieve the housing shortage in Macon, is recommended in a report formulated today by the special housing committee. Stock paying a small margin of profit, not over 7 per cent, will be put on sale shortly, and while business men and capitalists will be interested, small investors will be given a chance to invest their savings.

The housing commission will be asked to promote the building of five and six-room bungalows of a standard type costing between $4,500 and $5,000. The first unit of ten houses of standard type will be erected by dealers in building materials. The committee advises that no locations close in to the city be chosen, as it is the opinion of the members that each house have at least one acre of ground for gardening.

THOMAS E. GRAFTON DIED YESTERDAY

Rome, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—Thomas Edward Grafton, well-known civic worker, engineer and newspaper man, died after a month's illness. Funeral services were conducted at the family home tonight, and the body will be sent to his native city, Washington, D. C., tomorrow, for interment.

During the war he was a captain of the Seventeenth engineers. He had been chief engineer of the Dixie highway, secretary of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and superintendent of public works for both city and county. He had been city editor of The Rome Tribune-Herald, and at time of his death he was editor of the North Georgia Fair association. He is survived by his widow, his mother and a 12-year-old son, Ben Grafton.

Refutes Federal Census.

Macon, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—While the federal census figures for Macon announced a few days ago only gave this city 52,000 people, the new city directory which has just been issued conclusively shows that those figures are entirely too low. There are a total of 25,182 names in the directory and figuring the total census as 24 times this number gives the population as 624,576. The directory only contains the names of adult member of families.

MACON'S CURB MARKET TO OPEN ON JULY 17TH

Macon, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—July 17 has been fixed as the opening date of Macon's latest novelty, a curb market, and the city is making the inauguration of the housewives' biggest aid in the fight against the high cost of living a gala event.

Carrying market baskets, hundreds of Macon women will meet at the city auditorium on the morning of July 17 and will march in a body to the location selected for the curb market. There they will make their purchases and listen to a number of short addresses which will stress the value of the curb market to the city.

The markets to be located on popular street, between First and Second streets, and the privilege of selling will be open to all producers of food products using wagons or trucks from which to sell their products. The same privilege will be extended to hucksters, but each huckster must exhibit a sign designating him as such for the benefit of the public, for it is in the interest of the farmer and the consumer, and not the middle man, that the market is being opened.

The credit for the establishment of the market goes to the Women's auxiliary of the chamber of commerce. Many farmers have pledged their co-operation by bringing their products to the market regularly.

AUGUSTA SECTION FIGHTS THE WEEVIL

Augusta, Ga., July 7.—(Special.)—An intense fight is being waged in the territory adjacent to Augusta to save the cotton. The boll weevil has appeared in places the owners of which had no idea would be infested this year. Farmers have ascertained that fallen squares in their fields are infested. The weevil is in Columbia and Lincoln and other counties where he was not suspected, and every farmer is exerting himself to the utmost to gather and burn fallen squares. Further, land-lord farmers are doing all that they can to induce tenant farmers to also fight away the weevil, and all other known methods of fighting the pest are utilized.

The farm demonstration agents are co-operating and nothing is being neglected. A rainfall yesterday added to the danger from the destroyer. It is the hope that, with hot, sunny days and continued vigilance and hard work, the ravages can be kept under control.

of the insect will be checked in great extent, but the outlook is not bright. In every direction from Augusta within a radius of seventy-five miles the hardest kind of work is necessary every day and every week, without which there will be little cotton gathered.

Sports Four Atlantans Remain In Championship Flight

IT HAPPENS IN THE BEST REGULATED FAMILIES

OFF DAY SPENT BY CRACKERS

Rests for the boys who toil on the diamond don't come very often, hence we are able to forgive the framers of the Southern league schedule for their negligence in failing to provide a game for the fans of Atlanta at Ponce de Leon yesterday afternoon.

As a matter of fact, any team that takes three games in two days from the Mobile Braves is entitled to a holiday, and we needn't assert that the day off was a welcome event for the Frankmen.

It might be that the rest enabled the Crackers to prepare for the invasion of the Pelicans, which begins this afternoon. As the Birds are making a decided bid for the leadership of the Southern league, it takes more than tired pastimes to humiliate them, and a refreshed gang will face the Bobbsmen this afternoon.

The Braves silently departed this section Tuesday night, and were unable to spend the holiday with the locals. We have a hunch the leave taking of the Bears was a much sadder event than their advent. They had every right to expect a boost in their club standing, and the thoughts of the approaching series with the Frankmen, and three defeats in a row, must have been a terrible pill to swallow.

The local boys are busy at this time giving expert chatter on the Pelican-Cracker series, but the talk doesn't mean anything. The fabled bucket has been spilled so many times, one should hesitate to predict anything except the millennium sometime within the next billion years. That's safe, because no many of us will be left on earth to yell "told you so."

Regardless of predictions, it's Daniel Boone's turn to pitch this afternoon, and that handsome young man will provide plenty of amusement for the Pelicans.

Pels Regain Lead. Birmingham, July 7.—In a game in which an eighth inning rally by the Barons fell only one run short of tying the score, New Orleans defeated Birmingham in the final game of the series, 6 to 5. Walker held Birmingham at bay in the ninth, but the Barons scored all their runs. In the ninth the Barons had the tying run on base and only one out when Croil lined to Fiedler, the Pel dropping the ball, but recovering in time to tag Peters on his way to third. Stevenson struck out for the last out.

Pelicans Arrive Today For Four-Game Series

BY CLIFF WHEATLEY

Having disposed of the Bruins in great fashion, the Crackers now take on the diamond cavorters of the Pelicans for a four-game series, the first battle to be staged at Ponce de Leon this afternoon, and slated to be called at 3 o'clock. The importance of the series cannot be overestimated, and the result will have a very direct bearing on the position the Frankmen will occupy when the curtain descends on the 1920 season.

The Birds have played consistent baseball throughout the season, and by virtue of a recent spurt are staging a brilliant fight with the Barons for the leadership of Prexy Martin's circuit. The Pelicans were eager to figure in the bunching chase from the jump, but due to an indifferent start, a few of the "wise ones" crawled from their stand when the Bobbsmen started in the general direction of the cellar. One or two points were plugged, however, and since that time the Orleansians have been serious contenders.

The pitching staff of the New Orleans is one of the best in the league, and the Crackers will have a hard time getting away with the big end of the series. Clyde Barfoot, a Southern league castoff, but who later pitched such brilliant ball in the Texas league that Dobbs and Holmstrom paid a goodly sum for his services, is leading the Dixie major just now, and he shows no signs of slipping.

Good Pitching Staff. "Dixie" Walker, aged king of the Pel hurling staff and one of the best pitchers in the circuit, is giving Barfoot much assistance in keeping the Birds within striking distance of the rag, and the burly hero, and left, defeated, completely out of sorts, leaving the Crackers behind, convulsed in laughter over the shock they gave the Bruins. Doped to snatch the series, the Mobileans fell by the wayside, and the unexpected outcome harbors no joy for the fans of the city on the Gulf.

The local boys are busy at this time giving expert chatter on the Pelican-Cracker series, but the talk doesn't mean anything. The fabled bucket has been spilled so many times, one should hesitate to predict anything except the millennium sometime within the next billion years. That's safe, because no many of us will be left on earth to yell "told you so."

VOLTAGE IS BIG WINNER AT RANDALL

North Randall, Cleveland, July 7. Voltage, owned by J. D. Welsh, Kansas City, Mo., and driven by Fred Egan, of Memphis, won the Fasig sweepstakes purse of $2,000, the feature event of today's Grand Circuit race.

The Prince Yolo colt took the event from five great juvenile trotters in straight heats. Worthily Etawah went lame while scoring and was withdrawn.

Voltage led from the start in the first heat and had enough in the second to withstand Gray, Britton's belated stretch sprint. Natalie the Great and Day Star, coupled in the betting and heavy favorites, were prominent in the first heat.

Egan laid back with Voltage in the second heat, letting Day Star set the pace to the stretch, where Voltage passed him in a fierce drive on by a length. The Great Britton almost overtook Day Star for second place. The time, 2:13.4, for this mile, was remarkable considering the heavy track.

Continued rains put the track in poor condition that the horses were not called to the post for the first event until 3:30 p. m., and as a result it was impossible to finish today's program of six races, the 2:15 class being postponed.

Perry Adair Again Stars At Chattanooga, Staging Comeback Against Wright

By George H. Butler.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 7.—(Special.)—H. A. Wright, of Macon, is out of the southern tournament tonight, but before he went he gave two strenuous battles to two of Atlanta's crack golfers, and supplied the chief thrills of the second day of the southern golf tournament. In the morning elimination round Wright took the measure of Tom Prescott, Atlanta star, by a 1 up, winning at the eighteenth hole with a 20-foot putt. Previous to that he had holed long putts in profusion.

Prescott was ahead on his drives and superior with his irons, but once on the greens, as Prescott put it, "Wright only needed one shot."

This afternoon Perry Adair came to the sixth hole one up on the Maconite. Wright sank three 15 to 20 foot putts in succession, and turned two up on Perry. The Atlanta then braced and played the most brilliant golf of the tournament on the next four holes playing two of them in par and two in birdies and sinking a 20-footer on 13 for a 2. The rally decided the match, which finally ended at the 16th hole.

Four Atlantans Survive. Four Atlanta players are left in the championship flight as a result of the day's play, Bobby Jones, Perry Adair, Richard Hickey and Chick Riddley.

Chattanooga is represented by Boyd and Ewing Watkins, Birmingham, by Herbert Tutwiler and Macon, by N. A. Dempsey. All of the favorites came through today in fine style

"FIELD AGAINST OFFICE HOLDERS"

Opinion of Some Democratic Candidates and Delegates Going Home. Result Good Thing for Party, Says Gerard.

By Robert J. Bender.
United News Staff Correspondent.
Los Angeles, Cal., July 7.—(En Route.)—The democratic convention was a fight of the "field against the office holders."

At least that is the way the disappointed candidates and the mixture of worried and elated delegates returning to their homes from the San Francisco battle on this train figure it.

James W. Gerard so regarded it and conversation with many of the delegates today, representing all the different factions within the party, confirmed his opinion.

But there was a buoyancy in the attitude of all towards the ticket finally selected. The selection of Franklin D. Roosevelt as the second man on the ticket is held to be a master-stroke, in the belief of many delegates who hold that naming him has strengthened democratic chances of success. Roosevelt is a good campaigner and very popular.

Well Satisfied, Gerard Remarks.
"We are all very well satisfied," said Gerard, discussing the situation en route. "It was simply a case of the field against the office holders and the field won. It was a good thing for the party and I believe we have a winning ticket."

This was the attitude of mind that caused many delegates to swing from Palmer and McAdoo to Cox towards the end of the balloting, according to a number of delegation leaders with whom I talked.

"It was a case of a majority of the delegates being in favor of landing jobs for those who didn't get them under Wilson, instead of perpetuating the jobs of those who did land and who have been in office," said one leader.

What Will Bryan Do?
The greatest interest centers in what Bryan will do. His friends make no secret of his unhappiness and believe there is a real change of both Bryan and Owen attending and becoming interested in the committee of forty-eight's Chicago convention next week. Every effort, however, will be made by democratic leaders to swing Bryan into line and convince him the Cox nomination will not mean relaxation of the prohibition laws.

Their Point of View.

(From Answers.)
Tommy was entertaining the visitor until his mother came down, and conversation had dwindled. At length the lady thought she would start a fresh topic.

"Where are you going for your summer holiday this year?" she asked, with a kind smile.
"I don't know yet, Mrs. Smith," replied Tommy.

"But can't you guess, from things you have heard your mother and father saying?" pursued the lady, frantic at the thought that this subject, too, was going to prove a wash-out.

—but the Greatest of These is Home
In the Home Were Born the Ideas That Developed into Our Great Industries of Today

The great achievements in the industrial world are traceable, almost without exception, to the sacred spot called home. Great ideas had their inception there, and the nucleus of vast business was nurtured into definite proportions within the confines of home. How great an enterprise, then, is home itself—the greatest of all!

Aside from its sacredness as the abode of domestic affections, therefore, home, as an enterprise, should be furnished with those requisites that tend to make it a happy and enjoyable place, to say nothing of the comforts and conveniences that go to enhance its attraction as a spot of habitation—where growing children and developing ideas are wont to live.

And here is where you need Haverty's. With our immense stock and liberal terms, home furnishing can be made easy and economical. The few items listed below are offered as a suggestion.

Beautiful Patterns in Linoleum Art Squares

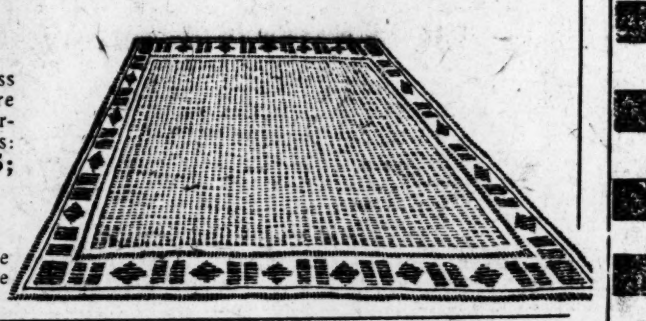

These rugs are genuine Armstrong's (Circle A) Linoleum Art Squares, and include some of the most appealing patterns it has ever been our privilege to offer. There are handsome designs for the living room, bedroom and dining room, and they come in three convenient and desirable sizes—9x12, 7½x10½, and 6x9. If you have never used linoleum rugs we urge that you give them a trial. Our linoleum customers are delighted with them, and so will you be. Besides their beauty, they recommended themselves for their great length of service and their very low cost. Prices, according to respective sizes mentioned above, are $29.75, $23.75 and $16.75.

Cheery Designs in Grass Rugs

We are offering the remainder of our imported Japanese Grass Rugs at attractive prices for the rest of the week. These rugs are good stock, and include patterns from each lot that proved so desirable to thrifty housewives this year. Special prices are as follows: 5x12, $14; 6x10, $10.50; 6x9, $6.75; 4½x7½, $4.75; 3x6, $2.00.

What You Want in Window Shades
Besides our complete stock of regular size window shades, we make shades to order in any desired size and material. Let us shade your home.

A Refrigerator Is a Necessity in Your Home

Many people seem to have the idea that a refrigerator is a luxury in the home that, for economy, may be eliminated. This, of course, is erroneous, for the refrigerator is one of the real necessities in the establishment of a home, not only for its convenience as a storage for leftovers and perishable goods, but for protection against waste. We would call your attention to a refrigerator that is conveniently arranged and scientifically constructed. It has a perfect cold, dry air circulation, which maintains refrigerating efficiency and ice economy. These refrigerators—the Haverty Hygienic—can be had in any size you desire, and at prices within the reach of all—from $19.50 up.

As a special, we are offering our 75-pound size this week at only $37.50, and on very liberal terms.

This Stove Is a Comfort and a Convenience

No institution, whether home or business, can be properly conducted when the performance of necessary duties are hampered by the lack of conveniences that make for comfort. The surest income work of the home is probably kitchen work, and the manufacturer of the evidently had this in mind when he perfected this kitchen comfort and convenience. These stoves are considered the best common-sense stoves on the market, and are so simple in construction, so easy, safe and sure of operation that a child can operate them. Direct oil feed, free air passage and concentrated heat energy guarantee greatest oil economy. With this stove your kitchen will be cool in summer and just warm enough to be pleasant in winter. There's a size to fit the smallest kitchenette, as well as the most spacious kitchen, ranging in price from $22.50 to $52.50.

CREDIT
A majority of the homes are bought on credit, because it makes home ownership possible. Furnish your home correctly by using the liberal credit offered you by this firm.

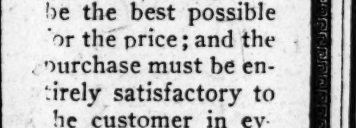

CASH
If you prefer to pay cash for your purchases we offer you a discount of 10 per cent. Let us furnish your home from the beautiful stocks we are now displaying.
